

How To

How To Create New Customer Account?

To create customer account, the step is very easy. After logged in, click Customers - Add New Customers.

Fill all necessary form (tax information is optional) and click Add Customer button to save that information into our database.

Customer's email address will become their username and the account is automatically activated.

You can view list of your customers from menu Customers - List All Customers.

Unique solution ID: #1024

Author: master faqsrs

Last update: 2014-07-02 08:24